

ArtTour International Magazine is proud to announce the release of the special publication

“ATIM’S TOP 60 MASTERS OF CONTEMPORARY ART”2014 INTERNATIONAL CATALOG.

We at ATIM are ecstatic to introduce to the public a highly-anticipated and ground-breaking new publication – a testament to our dedication and involvement with some of the most talented and inspiring artists operating in the world today; the ATIM’S Top 60 Masters of Contemporary Art 2014 catalogue! This outstanding list was compiled by selecting the most creative, visionary, and daring artist in the world today, and presenting their art as one eclectic whole.

Each book is a soft cover version in glorious, full color and printed on high-quality glossy paper and perfect bound. From the front cover reminiscent of the style of the classical masters by Dellorco with his work “En Pointe”, to the back cover which leans more towards modernism in the photography “Equine” by Julia Rabkin, and throughout the interior which was curated by Viviana Puello, ATIM’s Editor in Chief and organized overall by ATIM’s Graphic Director Alan Grimandi, this special edition catalogue is brimming with the creations of some of the world’s most awe-inspiring artists – an eclectic mixture that is sure to be enjoyed by everyone!

Our guest masters in this issue—Dale Chihuly, Fabian Perez and Kurt Wenner—are three individuals creating history in our present time who have already become inspirations for artists worldwide. Three contemporary guest masters and 60 artists from a big array of artistic forms of representation.
